TERRELL-KEEN.
Announcement has been received of the marriage in Macon, Ga., of Miss Ammie May Keen of that city and Fred W. Terrell of Miami, a real estate dealer. Mrs. Terrell is the daughter of Mrs. Jeannye Keen Nix and Mr. Terrell is the son of the late R. T. Terrell. They are driving from Macon to Miami, stopping at Jacksonville, Pablo Beach and other places.

KEEN—TERRELL

Much interest will be taken in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ammie May Keen, of this city, to Mr. Fred W. Terrell, of Miami, Fla., on Wednesday, June 10, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Russell Owen, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The wedding was at 10:30 o'clock. Only a few friends and immediate members of the family were present. The bride was lovely in a blonde shade dress of satin-back crepe, daintily tucked and lace-trimmed, with accessories to match. Her picture hat of a lighter shade, with a large pink rose on one side, enhanced her brunette beauty.

Mrs. Terrell is the daughter of Mrs. Jeannye Keen Nix, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Keen, of Dublin, Ga. She is the niece of Dr. O. F. Keen of this city, and of Messrs. J. J., M. W. and Dr. C. C. Jordan, of Dublin.

Mr. Terrell is connected with the Wemack Realty Company in Miami, Fla., and is the son of the late R. T. Terrell.

Although Mrs. Terrell had made her home in Macon for only a few months, she has made many friends, all of whom will be sorry that her marriage will cause her to make her home in another state.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Terrell left in their car for Miami, Fla., where they will make their home. En route they will stop at Jacksonville, Pablo and other points of interest.
