Notes: There is no record of Richard or his mother on any 1940 census, although his mother Mary lived in Milford, DE with her mother and siblings since birth.

The 1950 census shows Richard, (age 12), and his mother Mary living in Dover, as lodgers. Richard is also listed as a sophomore in the 1954 Dover High School yearbook, age 16.

By 1956 there are records showing him in Marine infantry training at camp Lejeune, NC. It appears he joined the service immediately after high school.

After 1958, (he is still in the marines), there is no record of him until 1979 when he is living in Wilmington, DE. He may have been stationed overseas.

For the period 1984 to 2018, he has moved back to Dover, living at 26 S. Governor's Ave. From 2018 to 2020 public records show him living at 2 Carolyn Ct., Dover. There is no trace of him after 2020. He was caring for a lady who lived on Park Pace in Dover.
