Remembrance from daughter Patricia Ann Webb Malcolm:

"My mother was born in North Carolina and moved to New York where she attended grade school and the Commerce Vocational School. She was originally Baptist, and joined the Episcopal Church in 1958. She was involved in the women's group, the choir and the community garden at Christ Episcopal Church in Dover. My mother was a quiet, shy, kind, gentle and classy lady. Her favorite activities were fishing, gardening and singing in the choir. She will be remembered for her homemade rolls and her love of her family."
