- William C. “Bill” Henry, of Dover, died on Monday June 7, 2004 at Silver Lake Center, Dover. He was 77.

He was born in Bridgeport, Conn., the son of the late James and Dorothy Cadman Henry.

Mr. Henry was a Navy veteran of World War II, and was a graduate of Brown University with a degree in engineering.

He was a resident of Delaware for more than 50 years, and served in various positions in the field of engineering. He served as the Director of Public Works in Wilmington for 19 years; and also served as the Sussex County and Kent County engineer for several years. He was currently employed as an engineer for the Del. Division of Natural Resources and Environmental Control.

Mr. Henry was a longtime member of Christ Episcopal Church, Dover. In addition, he was a past president of the Kent and Sussex Co. Chapter for the Del. Society for Professional Engineers, and was a member of the Water Pollution Control Federation, the American Waterworks Assoc., and the American Public Works Assoc.

He enjoyed traveling, motorcycling, and most especially, spending time with his family. Bill was a very devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He will be remembered for his love and caring, and his creative sense of humor.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Phyllis Adams Henry in 1974; and a daughter, Nancy Maher, in 1997.

He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Jeanne M. Henry; six daughters, Kathleen Turcotte, of Fla.; Karen Kennedy, of Federalsburg, Md.; Sandra Ploskon, of Bear; Suzanne Monath, of Georgetown; and Ann Maher-Flood, of Milton; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Services were held on Saturday June 12, at Christ Episcopal Church, State and Water Sts., Dover, with burial followed in the adjoining churchyard.

Memorial contributions may be sent to The Shepard Place, 1362 S. Governors Ave., Dover, DE, 19904.
