Hoey-Clew
 Wedding Held
 In Haddam

St. Peter's Church in Haddam was the scene on June 24 at 11 a.m. for the marriage of Miss Carole M. Clew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clew of Haddam, to Mr. Edwin A. Hoey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Hoey of Chillicothe, Ohio. The Rev. C. Russell Woollen of Catholic University, a cousin of the bride, officiated at the ceremony, and bridal music was provided by Mrs. Madelaine Horton Schmidt.

The bride, who was presented in marriage by her father, was dressed in a ballerina-length gown of white imported organdy. Swiss embroidered banding accented the bateau neckline of the fitted bodice, designed with tiny sleeves, and a Swiss floral motif applied the front of the full circular skirt finished with a bow detail. Her veil of imported illusion was held in place by an embroidered organza cap trimmed with pearls, and she carried an arrangement of stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Sheila A. Gallivan of Winchester, Mass., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Miss Elizabeth B. Clew of Haddam, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Har-

All the attendants were attired in ballerina-length gowns of white organdy styled with French poufs and complemented with lavender sashes and small lavender ribbon hats trimmed with circular veils. Their bouquets were of lavender, carnations, baby's breath and ivy.

Mr. Tennent Hoey of Chillicothe was best man, and wedding guests were ushered by Mr. G. Brook Hoey of Chillicothe and Mr. William T. Clew of Worcester, Mass.

Following a reception at the Middletown Yacht Club, the couple left for Bermuda. For her going away costume, the bride selected a gold, tan and burnt orange chemise coat dress with straw accessories. Upon their return, July 21, they will live at 49 High St., Middletown.
