HAVE MANY GRANDPARENTS

Dover, Dec. 21.—Little Helen Louise and William Avery Hughes, twin children of Dr. and Mrs. Avery Hughes, enjoy the distinction of having eight living grandparents and great-grandparents, and expect to fare well on Christmas Day.

The twins were born in Dover three years ago, but now live in Washington, D. C., with their parents. The mother of the twins is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. H. Bishop, of this place, and while a resident here was prominently identified with the social and musical life of the town, serving for many years as organist of Christ P. E. Church.

The living grandparents and great-grandparents of these interesting twins are as follows: Dr. C. A. Hughes and wife, of Washington, D. C., father and mother of Dr. Avery Hughes; Colonel Hughes, a retired army officer, of Washington, who is a great-grandfather; Dr. and Mrs. L. A. H. Bishop, of Dover, father and mother of Mrs. Avery Hughes; Mrs. Bishop, mother of Dr. L. A. H. Bishop, also of this place; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Laws, mother and father of Mrs. L. A. Bishop, of Dover.

The children are frequent visitors to Dover, and on account of their attractiveness are greatly admired by every one.

Helen Hoopes

DOVER — Helen Louise Hughes Hoopes, 79, of 424 S. State St., and Bethany Beach, died Friday at her Dover home after a long illness.

Mrs. Hoopes retired in 1967 after many years as chief bookkeeper for the state Board of Health in Dover.

Her husband, Thomas Jr., died in 1970. She is survived by three stepdaughters, Katherine G. Schmidt of Schenectady, N.Y., Marjorie A. McGuire of Greensboro, N.C., and Betsy E. Lawrence of West Chester, Pa., and a brother, William A. Hughes Sr. of Rehoboth Beach.

Services will be Monday afternoon at 1:30 at Christ Episcopal Church, South State and Water streets, with burial in the adjoining churchyard. There will be no viewing. Instead of flowers, the family suggests contributions to Christ Episcopal Church, South State and Water streets, Dover, 19901, or the Kent County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, 5 E. Reed St., Dover, 19901.
