Paul T. Morris

DOVER, DEL. — Paul T. Morris passed away peacefully Saturday, May 12, 2007, at Bay Health-Kent General Hospital with his loving wife and daughter by his side.

Born in Baltimore, Paul grew up in Jarrettsville, then returned to Baltimore to complete his education, graduating from the University of Baltimore with a degree in business administration. He served in the U.S. Army in Germany where his "15 minutes of fame" included playing poker with Elvis Presley. Returning to Baltimore, he went to work for various financial institutions before being transferred to Dover, Del.

In 1967, he joined Delaware Trust Company as manager of the Downtown Dover Branch. In addition, he held positions of vice president of lending and market director of indirect lending in Kent and Sussex counties before his retirement in 1992. After two years of golfing, he partnered with Robert Dashiell and opened A+ Floor Store in Dover. In 1999, he opened the Riverside Hotel and Restaurant in Greensboro, which he had faithfully restored to its Victorian elegance.

Paul was a member of Christ Episcopal Church, the American Legion, Del Vets, The Elks and Dover Rotary Club. He was a member of Maple Dale Country Club where he enjoyed golfing and was a regular in the card room. He served in numerous civic endeavors including Downtown Merchants Association, Scholarship Committee for Delaware State College and the Air Force Association. He was one of the founders of the Air Mobility Command Museum at Dover Air Force Base. Paul was an active member of the Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce. Paul served on the Board of Thriftway Supermarkets for more than 20 years. He was also a member of the MD Gin players, a game which dates back to before Governor Charles Terry, who was an avid player. Paul was very much a private person; he supported many community organizations and private people of which he refused to be recognized for his efforts.

"Foxy" leaves behind many friends and associates who knew him for his wit, dry humor and his business acumen.

Paul is survived by his loving wife Ruth (née Dvorak); his dear daughter Julia Moore; and was the proud "Bepa" of his grandchildren, Ridgely Allison and Daniel James Moore, the lights of his life.

Services and interment will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, May 15, at Christ Episcopal Church, State and Water Streets, Dover, Del.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Christ Episcopal Church in Dover, Del. or Saint Anne's Episcopal School in Middletown, Del.

Letters of condolence may be sent and the guestbook signed at torbertfuneral.com.
