Mrs. Cornelia A. Selmser, wife of Edward P. Selmser, died at her home on State street yesterday at noon from consumption. Mrs. Selmser's maiden name was Voshing, and she was very prominently connected in New York, where Mr. Selmser, her husband, is a member of the stock exchange. It was in the hopes of benefiting his wife's health that Mr. Selmser came to Dover about six years ago. He bought a large farm just west of town and for some years lived on it in the summer and in Philadelphia in the winter. Last fall he moved with his fami y into town, taking Dr. Creadick's mension on State street. Mrs. Selmser was an estimable lady. She leaves, beside ber husband, four daughters. She was 50 years of age at the time of her death. The remains will be interred in the Episcopal cemetery here on Friday after noon. News Journal, WilmingtonDE, Wednesday, March 7, 1888
