Miss Barbara Lovejoy Married in St. George's

RUMSON — Miss Barbara Sue Lovejoy, daughter of Col. Clarence E. Lovejoy, US Army Retired, and Mrs. Lovejoy of Horse-neck Point, Oceanport, was married Saturday to Charles Thomas Straughn, 2d, of Wilmington, Del., son of the late Dr. and Mrs. William S. Straughn of Dover, Del., in St. George's Episcopal Church.

Rev. Canon George A. Robertshaw, rector, officiated. A luncheon and reception followed at Gibbs Hall, Fort Monmouth Officers' Club, at Eatontown.

Col. Lovejoy gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white Italian silk, styled with a Sabrina neckline that was trimmed with Alencon lace which was dotted with seed pearls, and a bouffant skirt, trimmed with an applique of Alencon lace, and draped back with a chapel length train. Her bouffant veil was attached to a crown of crystals and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Miss Joan Anita Lovejoy of Oceanport, was maid of honor. Misses Leta Cummings, Camp Hill, Pa., and Leona Weydemeyer, Cranford, were bridesmaids. All wore dresses of romance blue silk organza, and carried bouquets of white spider chrysanthemums and blue delphinium.

William Straughn of Harve de Grace, Md., was his brother's best man. The ushers were William S. Hudson of Dover; George Melton, Magnolia, Del.; Assign Howard G. Seeley, Long Branch, and James J. Hines, New York City.

Mrs. Straughn is an alumna of Dickinson College and is a member of Shrewsbury Towne Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Her father is boasting editor of the New York Times and author of "Lovejoy's College Guide," and other educational guidance books.

The bridegroom attended Wyoming Seminary and the University of Delaware, and is a student at Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa.

After a wedding trip to Lake Michigan resorts, the couple will live in Fairfield, Iowa.
